THOUGHTS FOR THE EVENING

"Let there be Christmas lights: light in the soul, light for others, and no hostilities.

This is the beautiful light of Jesus." – The Late Pope Francis

"A Christmas candle is a lovely thing: it makes no noise at all, but softly and slowly gives itself away that others may shine, too." – Eva Logue

"Christmas is a necessity; there has to be at least one day of the year to remind us that we're here for something else besides ourselves." – Eric Sevareid

WORDS OF WELCOME

M: "When the appointed time had come, God sent forth the Christ – birthed by a human and confined under the law of humanity,

P: to liberate us, who were held captive by the law,
that we might receive our status as God's children."

P.E.U.M.C. – A Home for All of God's People

*HYMN OF PRAISE: Once in Royal David's City

Vs. 1: Once in royal David's city stood a lowly cattle shed,
                  where a mother laid her baby
                  in a manger for His bed;
                  Mary, loving mother mild,
                  Jesus Christ, her little Child.

Vs. 2: He came down to earth from heaven
                  who is God and Lord of all,
                  and His shelter was a stable,
                  and His cradle was a stall.
With the poor, the scorned, the lowly lived on earth our Savior Holy.

Confession

ALL: Lord of Christmas Peace, we have done wrong.

We have tarnished the gifts You give freely,
burying so deeply the divine within us,
that the world doesn't see You.

We have not followed Christ,
we have ignored Your teachings,
we have lived lives against Your love,
we have built fences to push people away,
and we have silenced the cries of those in need.

Forgive us, we pray.

Free us from our sin, our captivity,
and unto a life lived in joy and justice
through Jesus Christ our Lord: AMEN!

[pray & reflect in silence]

Assurance

M: In Christ,

*the Light, the Word, the Glory of God's love shines in our hearts,
and we are a forgiven people,
given strength to go forward into a new future.*

In the name of Jesus, Emmanuel, you are forgiven!

P: In the name of Jesus, God-With-Us,
you are forgiven!

About Tonight's Service

Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols started in 1918 at King's College in Cambridge, England. During World War I, Eric Milner-White, dean of the college, was concerned that the distress of the "Great War" had hardened attitudes against religion.

Since the beginning, "Once in Royal David's City" has opened the service, followed by a bidding prayer inviting worshippers to 'go unto Bethlehem' in their imaginations and holding in prayer the many who are far from glad in their personal and shared suffering. The prayer ends by mentioning those who have passed from this mortal life; when this was first written, Milner-White had in mind all who were bereaved by the violence of war and the recent deaths of thousands of loved ones. The scripture readings have largely remained the same. They are the story of the fall of humanity, the promise of the Messiah, and the birth of Jesus is interspersed with the singing of hymns. The order and selection of hymns do vary from year to year. The service always ends with Charles Wesley's "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing."

The service, and its message, have a beautiful simplicity. It is a beloved tradition rooted in healing, because it was forged in the fires of war, grief, and suffering. Rather than leading with the holly-jolly, razzle-dazzle that can crush a bruised spirit, this service tenderly invites the worshipper into a holy stillness.

Like the very candles flickering throughout our darkened sanctuary, the hope and joy that headline much of the Christmas season shine brighter against the acknowledgement of brokenness, pain, and wait.
