THOUGHTS FOR THE DAY

"Baptism is a loyalty oath and sign; it is a public avowal of who is on the Lord's side in this cosmic war between good and evil." –Michael S. Heiser

"Just the fact that you get to live and breathe and interact with a wonderful world—that's pretty marvelous." –Junot Diaz

"For all who are baptized into Christ are clothed with Christ." - Galatians 3:27

January Mission Project:

Fund the purchase of wooden crosses & hearts
for Riverview Hospital waiting rooms.

Sermon Notes & Prayers from Today:

THIS WEEK'S CALL TO DISCIPLESHIP:

- Prayer theme: For those who are spiritually searching & religiously disillusioned.
- Consider: What can Christ still accomplish even if I say 'no?' Better yet: What divine work do I hinder whenever I say 'no?'
- Action: Breathe (both in & out). Consider how social sins are intricately bound with our own personal sins.

PACKING THE GREENS
& Packers -n- Potatoes,
after the service

January 25th

Scripture: John 2, Jesus & Nicodemus

Looking Ahead

PACKING THE GREENS

All good things must come to an end (except for Eternal Life).
Next Sunday (1/11), help us de-hang the greens in the sanctuary.
With enough hands, this shouldn't take us more than 25-30 minutes.

Packers -n- Potatoes

Following the packing of the greens will be our annual PACKERS -N- POTATOES lunch in the Fellowship Hall of the church.
This is a baked potato bar.

It doesn't matter what kind of year the Packers may have had, we can still enjoy Christian fellowship over a hot potato! The lunch is free!
(Please consider bringing a topping for the baked potato bar)

January Mission Project:

You may have seen, in other hospital waiting rooms, baskets of knitted crosses, squares, or other items. These are to be taken by patients' friends & families as comforting items. We'd like to stock the various waiting rooms at Riverview Hospital in Rapids with wooden crosses & hearts (which we will paint and decorate later) on behalf of "your friends at Port Edwards United Methodist Church."
