

TRINITY SUNDAY

Sunday, May 31st, 2026

We are each a mind, a body, and a soul.
A fire has flame, heat, and light.
A person's speech is words, thoughts, and voice.
Yet we are still one person, burn with one fiery passion, and proclaim with one voice. It's the same with the Holy Trinity.

Sermon Notes & Prayers from Today:

This Week's Call to Discipleship:

- Prayer theme: Challenge yourself to pray to a different Person of the Trinity. Instead of "Father God," pray to Jesus or the Spirit.
- Consider: Do you understand Creation as happenstance or a reality of the Divine Mind's creativity? How might life itself be an invitation to participate in the "dance" that Triune Godhead already enjoys?
- Action: Call someone you haven't talked to, or seen, from our church family (check your directory)!
