

PRIDE SERVICE

Sunday, June 14th, 2026

“Yes, I’m absolutely sure of this:
nothing – not death nor life, heaven nor hell,
nothing now, nothing to come,
no powers nor principalities, above us or below us –
nothing in this entire created world –
can ever separate us from God’s love shown us in Christ Jesus.”

-Romans 8:38-39

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

"When you put love out into the world, it travels, and it will touch and reach people in ways that we never could have expected." -Laverne Cox

"Life begins to make sense when you are open & honest about yourself." -Ian McKellen

"I formed the way you think and feel – right in your mother's womb.

You are wonderfully and beautifully made!" -Psalms 139:13-14

Sermon Notes & Prayers from Today:

This Week's Call to Discipleship:

- Prayer theme: “Spirit of the Living God, help me notice what You’ve done in me and through me – and give me the courage to share it with someone who needs hope.”
- Consider: Where has my faith actually changed me – and what keeps me from telling that story out loud? When did my faith make a difference – a decision, a healing, a shift in perspective, an softened heart, a new courage?
- Action: Share a true story of how faith has changed you, for example:
“I used to carry this fear, but faith helped me loosen my grip.”
“Prayer didn’t fix everything but it steadied me when I needed it.”
“Church gave me a community when I felt alone.”
“Following Jesus helped me choose compassion when I felt angry.”
